"It might have taken us weeks to properly clean our home before putting it on the market. But the professionals at Venice Cleaning were able to thoroughly deep clean our home in just one day! And after listing our home, Venice Cleaning came out every week to keep our home fresh and clean. Their service made our lives so much easier and our house always looked great for each showing!" (Dean & Maggie M.—Venice, FL)

Listing Your Home for Sale?

We're there for you every step of the way.

Real estate professionals all agree that a complete home deep cleaning is an important step in selling your home. Home improvements are great; but, don't overlook this important detail.

A deep cleaning from Venice Cleaning & Maid Services can provide sensible, effective results at an affordable price. Once your home is listed we can even arrange weekly visits to your home to keep things clean and fresh while your home is for sale.

Moving in to a New Home?

We promise you won't move in to a dirty home.

In today's economy, houses are sitting on the market for extended periods of time. It isn't uncommon for a home to be listed for sale for 6 months, a year, or more! And during that time all sorts of interesting things can happen inside your new home, from musty smells, unpleasant bugs and cobwebs/spider webs, dust-laden surfaces and appliances, mold build up, dirty carpets, and more!

Give yourself and your family the gift of a thoroughly clean home by calling us at least two weeks before moving day to schedule a deep cleaning!
